

RMIT Student Leadership Recognition Awards Frequently Asked Questions

1. Why should I apply for RMIT Student Leadership Recognition Awards?

For the last ten years, Student Leadership Recognition Awards (SLRAs) have been awarded to some of the most prominent RMIT students who have shown outstanding leadership, and contributed to RMIT community. RMIT SLRAs have opened pathways to help these RMIT students unlock their full potential. This year, the Student Leadership Recognition Awards will be awarded to students who have demonstrated exemplary leadership skills in the areas of social responsibility and service to the RMIT community.

2. How many awards are there?

This year, there are a total of 10 Awards available for all RMIT students.

3. When is the application deadline?

The application deadline is 11:59 PM, 3rd December, 2021 with all supplementary documents.

4. Where can I pick up and drop off the application?

Please submit your 2021 RMIT SLRAs Application online. Supplementary documents include:

- A short personal statement (400 – 500 words) detailing one of the most meaningful leadership experiences that you have undertaken at RMIT Vietnam and why you believe you embody the award
- Two letters of recommendation from supervisors or colleagues that support and demonstrate your leadership qualities.

- An up-to-date version of your resume including leadership experience, extracurricular activities and supporting documents/evidence/contact for reference. Participation in national/ international competitions and activities outside of RMIT will all be given credits.

All documents need to be submitted no later than 11:59 PM on Friday, 3rd December 2021.

5. How do I know that I am qualified for the RMIT SLRAs?

If you meet the application criteria, you will be considered for the award and you will be notified via email within one week after the deadline. Up to 10 selected recipients will be contacted.

Note: If you have the prerequisites to receive the RMIT SLRAs, but have not been chosen as a recipient for this year, we encourage you to re-apply next year and continue with your involvement in leadership and other co-curricular activities.

6. Who reviews the applications?

A selection committee called the Student Leadership Recognition Awards Adjudication Committee will review the applications.

7. How do I learn more about RMIT SLRA this year?

There is an RMIT Student Leadership Recognition Awards Information Session on 15 November 2021 (11:00 – 12:00) to help you learn more about the awards. The Information Session will be held online and will provide general information including eligibility requirements and application process.
