

RMIT Student Leadership Recognition Award FAQs

1. Why should I apply for RMIT Student Leadership Recognition Award?

For the last eight years, Student Leadership Recognition Awards (SLRAs) have been awarded to some of the most prominent RMIT students who have shown outstanding leadership, and contributed to RMIT community. RMIT SLRAs have opened pathways to help these RMIT students unlock their full potential. This year, the Student Leadership Recognition Awards will be awarded to students who have demonstrated exemplary leadership skills in the areas of social responsibility and service to the RMIT community.

The RMIT SLRA can accompany your degree and you will have an opportunity to win a trip attending the 9th University Scholars Symposium 2018 on 1-7 August 2018 in Bangkok, Thailand. For more information related to the Symposium, you can visit here.

2. How many awards are there?

This year, there are a total of 10 Awards available for all RMIT students.
